Soldiers Thank Lions For Cigarettes

CAME 'IN HANDY AFTER BOMBING RAID

Typical of the appreciative letters which Secretary H. E. Gilroy of the Newmarket Lions Club is receiving from Newmarket soldiers overseas are the following:
G. T. Blencowe, England: "I received 300 Legion cigarettes from the Lions and I thought I should send you a few words of thanks. I really do appreciate them. It seems that smoking is more of an enjoyment here, especially when things are dull."

"Because the Lions are so interested in charity, I thought I would tell you about our trip to the Sunshine Home to-day, Sunday. This is a hospital for blind children up to seven, just children."

"The padre got the band to go down to play for them. I am sure the time was well spent, for they enjoyed it very much. Afterwards the matron told us something of their lives and it is surprising how bright they become with training. It is a charity organization."

"Well, I'll sign off now, wishing you luck and thanks very much again."

Cpl. F. C. Evans, England: "Many thanks for the cigarettes that I received to-day. They certainly are more than appreciated. They will really come in handy just now, as I'm having leave this week."

"It certainly is marvellous the way the different Newmarket organizations are looking after us. Makes the boys from the so-called big cities sit up and take notice. Hope everything back there is going along quite well and that everyone is happy and healthy. I'm (Continued on Page 5, Col. 4)

$150 FOR CHINESE RELIEF FUND

Despite the almost continual downpour of Saturday, the sum of $150.35 was realized from the tag day for the Chinese Relief Fund. Principal J. B. Basto of the N.H.S., and his group of pupil volunteer taggers, were on the job all day making a systematic canvass of the town. Due to their splendid efforts this magnificent sum was obtained.

INVALID FOR MANY YEARS, MRS. HENRY RACINE DEAD

An invalid for many years, the last few of which were spent in York County Hospital until her removal to Mercy Hospital, Toronto, two years ago, Alice Wooding Thompson, wife of the late Henry Racine, died on Saturday, March 21, in her 75th year.

Born in Holland Landing she had been a resident of Newmarket for the greater part of her life living on Main street north. The funeral service on Monday was held at the chapel of Roadhouse and Rose. Interment took place at Newmarket Cemetery.

Surviving are three sons, Arthur and Raymond of Toronto, and Berwell of Chicago.

AT THE GAME

One usually runs across a group of old-timers at the hockey matches in Toronto, and the Sutton game Friday night was no exception.

Tom Cook, who until recently operated the Triangle Service Station, Orval Stone, a one-time cleaner and presser here, and native of the old town, and "Pep" Kelly of hockey fame, were among those on hand.

SUTTON BROTHERS IN ENGLAND

T.P.R. HILLIARD PIVNICK and A.C. 1 K. L. PIVNICK, sons of Mr. and Mrs. David Pivnick of Sutton, and brothers of Mrs. Isha Goodman of town, are with the Canadian army overseas. Hilliard, a member of the Ontario Tank Regiment, went overseas in August 1940, and the younger brother in October last year.

Farm Should Be Recognized As War Industry

MUST SHAKE SPIRIT OF COMPLACENCY, DECLARES LION SPEAKER

Declaring that the farm should be dealt with as a war industry in Canada's war effort W. R. McVittie of Barrie, school inspector for Simcoe, made a stirring speech to the local Lions and some forty farmer guests on Monday evening. "I realize the farmer is faced with serious problems," the speaker told his listeners. "It is extremely difficult to return men to work on the land when they have been receiving $120 a month or more in war work. How can the farmer produce the quantities of live stock and grain that the government expects? These are the problems of the farmers, and how can they be solved? Not by this group or that group pressing their claims, but as an organized unit such as practised in Denmark with such marvellous results. We will have to get more of a community spirit between the cities, towns and farms, not merely a word of mouth co-operation with the farmer, but really co-operating."

"Besides putting our communities on an economically sound basis we must put them on a spiritual basis—we must lose the spirit of complacency. There are things working against the welfare of our country, but are just taken for granted. The farmer should have the privilege to come in and tell you what's wrong for his boy or girl coming into your schools. You (Continued on Page 5, Col. 3)

L.A.C. GEORGE STOKES BURIED IN NEWMARKET CEMETERY

Great Grandson of Former Newmarket Merchant

L.A.C. George Roscoe Stokes, great-grandson of R. H. Smith, a merchant here in Newmarket's earlier days, and who built "The Cedars," now owned by Everett Scott, was buried in the family plot at the Newmarket Cemetery Tuesday afternoon with military honors.

George Roscoe Stokes, who was in his 37th year, was born in Uxbridge the son of George Stokes and Daisy Denham. Following a few years in Goderich the family moved to Petrolia.

Fourteen months back the young man enlisted with the R.C.A.F., taking the course in technical training at St. Thomas then being stationed at Trenton. Home on weekend leave he was suddenly taken ill and was admitted to the Petrolia hospital. Removed to the Westminster military hospital at London his condition became slightly improved, but he became critically ill and died suddenly early Saturday morning.

The funeral service on Tuesday afternoon at the funeral chapel of Roadhouse and Rose was conducted by Padre Anderson of Trenton, and the Rev. N. Stevenson, an uncle of Toronto. Pallbearers were eight members of the R.C.A.F. from Trenton.

Surviving are his mother and two sisters, Misses Lillian and Mary Stokes of Petrolia. Attending the service from a distance were Rev. and Mrs. Stevenson, Toronto; Mrs. Barr, Richmond Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Fifth, Toronto, and Miss Mary Livingston of Alvington.

"Gondoliers" Is Pickering College Triumph

CHORUS AND PRINCIPALS IN BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE

By Augustus Bridle

Pickering College staged a buoyant festival weekend with "The Gondoliers," of three gala performances symbolized by a wonderfully picturesque program sketch of a gondolier.

The scene-sets were devised by R. Renzius and F. Hagen, who also sketched the program. Harbord Collegiate sent up three throne chairs. Robert Detwiler and Jack Barter supervised the costumes furnished by Mallabar. Make-ups were handled by seven people—F. D. L. Stewart, Miss Ancient and Mesdames Blackstock, Buckley, Green, Perry, Renzius. R. E. K. Rourke directed the production. Alice Strong Rourke trained the Newmarket high school chorus of Connelings. G. Rutledge and R. Golden acted as musical aides. Gwen Williams was the alert and efficient accompanist.

As usual the chorus folk were among the chief actors; their singing this year had even more brilliant vitality than in other years. The Cachucha was the choral highlight. This lively dance was given with excellent vocalism combined with thoroughly vivacious routines.

The cast of experienced Gilbert & Sullivan principals was reinforced by some capable newcomers. Alice Rourke's delightful lyric soprano voice is admirably suited to the role of Gleanette. Her solo work always sets a high standard of delightful vocalism. Elizabeth Bear's role of Tessa combines finished acting with competent singing. Those two would do credit to most professional troupes.

LIONS LOOK AFTER CHILDREN

It was reported at Lions Club Monday night that a nurse and hospital expenses had been provided for a child that had had an appendicitis operation, and that another youngster had been examined for eye trouble.

MAYOR DALES IMPROVING

Mayor Lowell Dales has been confined to the house the past few days with a heavy attack of the flu. While feeling much better, he will still be off the active list for a day or so.

OPENS SHOE REPAIR BUSINESS

Bill Koshel, resident of town for the past few years, is opening a shoe repair business in the store recently vacated by Joe Spilletta, across from the post office.

Some interesting sidelights on the history of the Queen's York Rangers have been contributed by Lt. Col. John Hyde Bennett, O. C. of the battalion.

On August 16, 1812, Capt. Thomas Selby's Flank Company of The First York Regiment and Capt. Peter Robinson's Rifle Company, recruited from the Yonge Street district, and was part of General Brock's force which with 700 regulars attacked and captured Detroit, General Hull surrendering with 2000 men.

The threat of an American invasion from Niagara River caused Brock to concentrate his small army between Queenston Heights and Niagara. 190 men charged up the Heights at Queenston helping to win the battle. General Brock fell. Shortly after, he gave his famous command, "Push on, York Volunteers."

On the 14th September, 1866, on reorganization of The Canadian Militia, the 12th Regiment, York Rangers, was formed. This Regiment is the descendant of Rogers Rangers formed in 1755, in the Colony of New Hampshire, at that time being one of The New England States. This Regiment is now Recruiting in the County of York, being officially The York County Regiment.

The York County Regiment York Rangers. It is interesting to remember in 1866 there were five Companies with headquarters as follows: Scarboro, Aurora, Lloyd-town, King, Newmarket.

The Commanding Officer of The 12th York Rangers in 1866 was Lieut. Colonel W. D. Jarvis, being one of the Jarvis family who settled in the County of York after the Revolutionary war, refusing to take the Oath of Allegiance to the newly formed United States of America.

Sutton In Inter- mediate "A" Finals

DEFEAT NAVY 4-2 IN SEMI FINALS

Despite the wide open spaces of Maple Leaf Gardens, Sutton Green-shirts held George McNamara and his H.M.C.S. York to a two-all tie Friday evening, and by virtue of a 2-0 count the evening before, now advance to the intermediate "A" playoffs with the winner of the Fingal-Waterloo series.

When Whitehead of the navy beat Ginger Hall in the first six minutes of play to make the score on the round 3-1, the Sutton supporters had a sudden vision of their favorites passing out of the playoffs, but four minutes later when Harvey Gibney sunk the disc on a neat pass from Culverwell and Diplock, joy was unconfined. Before the period ended Joint McComb made things look rosier still when he combined with Harris and Shephstone to increase the round total to a three goal advantage.

The second period, though scoreless, was featured by heavy body checking and stellar net-minding by both goalies, while persistent back-checking by both clubs minimized many a well-meant rush.

The final session saw the navy getting no place against the defensive efforts of the Lake Simcoe

Teacher Saves Three Children From Drowning

FOURTH CHILD GOES DOWN IN FLOOD WATER

Frantically smashing the ice and wading into icy water to her chin, Miss Mary Graham, teacher at S.S. 12, Bloomington, rescued three or four children who broke through ice covering flood water at the rear of the school Tuesday. The body of the fourth child, Donald Albert Jordan, aged 8, was recovered within five minutes, but artificial respiration administered by the teacher and neighbors failed to revive him.

The three children saved were Bruce Jordan, 11, brother of the drowned youth; Rita Rae, 9, and Norma Cowie, 11. The Jordan children are son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan of Queensville and have been living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Mitchell of Musselman's Lake.

The four children were playing together during the afternoon recess period shortly after 2 p.m., the teacher said.

"They strayed to the ice-covered flood water at the rear of the school and then I heard them and some of the other children screaming," she said. "I rushed out and broke through the ice to rescue three of them. I couldn't find Donald."

Miss Graham stated that all pupils at the school had been repeatedly warned not to go near the water because the ice was "rubbery." She estimated the depth of the pond where the children fell through as being between five and six feet.

Arthur Smith who lives close to the school, heard the children's cries and rushed to the scene of the accident with a long pole. He found the body of the drowned child within five minutes beneath the ice a short distance from where the accident took place. Along with the teacher and neighbors, he attempted to revive the youth by artificial respiration.

The teacher, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Graham of Ringwood, was ordered to bed under medical care to recuperate from the shock and cuts suffered while trying to break the ice.

Coroner Dr. S. S. Ball of Stouffville has not decided whether or not an inquest will be held. He pronounced the boy dead when arriving at the scene.

The school is situated a mile north of Stouffville in Whitchurch township.

Holstein Breeders Hold Seventh Annual Banquet

DR. G. E. REAMAN ADDRESSES GATHERING

Staging their seventh annual banquet at Woodbridge on Wednesday last the York County Holstein Club scored another success with over 225 members and friends taxing the capacity of the hall to enjoy what was claimed by all to be the best yet. The guests included a number of members of the Peel Club as well as the presidents of the Jersey and Ayrshire clubs.

President Archie Cameron of Vellore called on J. J. E. McCague of Alliston, a native of Victoria Square and 2nd vice-president of the Canadian Association, to introduce the guest speaker, Dr. G. E. Reaman, head of the Department of English at the O.A.C. He pointed out that Dr. Reaman had been born just north of Concord and before going to the O.A.C. was principal of the Bowmanville Boys' School. (We note with interest his mother celebrated her 90th birthday at Richmond Hill on the 21st. Congratulations!) Dr. Reaman gave a most entertaining and instructive address on psychology in the home which presented many new ideas on family relationship. (Continued on Page 5, Col. 3)

TRUE STORY OF EARLY NEWMARKET RECALLED BY LION SPEAKER

An early episode in Newmarket's history which will be remembered by many old timers was brought to light by Inspector W. R. McVittie of Barrie Monday night at the Lions Club when he recalled a story told him in Manitoulin Island by the Rev. Cochrane, a former pastor of Trinity United Church here.

The story goes that the Methodists were going to build a new church, and while out on their canvass for funds called on the parish priest Dean Harris, as a joke on the reverend father. When told of their mission, the priest asked them what they were going to do with the old church.

"Why tear it down," replied the canvassers.

"Well, I couldn't give you a donation toward building a new one," came back Dean Harris, "but here's $25 to tear the old one down."

Home And School Club Sponsor Oratorical Contest

FOURTEEN PUPILS COMPETE FOR HONORS

In order that our children may be fitted for their places in life, it is essential that they be trained first to think, then to express their thoughts with dignity and self-respect. The interests of the child demand the active support of both teacher and parents. With this objective in view the Newmarket Home and School Association has created opportunities for children to appear before an audience. In a word, the aim is to give the child an opportunity for developing this phase of citizen apprenticeship.

Tuesday night was the occasion of the Senior Oratorical Contest when fourteen boys and girls from Grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 spoke on "Citizenship." Those taking part were, Grade 5: Jim Smart, King George school; Joan Bovall, Alexander Muir; George Case, King George; Mary Ellen McInnis, Alexander Muir. Grade 6: Jean Ann Perry, Alexander Muir; John McKimling, King George; Mary Lou Little, Alexander Muir. Grade 7: Fred Palmer, Stuart Scott; Shirley Andrews, Alexander Muir; Maude Farren, Stuart Scott; Miriam Ryman, Alexander Muir. Grade 8: Donald Williams, King George; Jimmy Walls, Alexander Muir; Gary Proctor, Alexander Muir.

One first prize was given to each grade; the efforts of all other participants were recognized with war savings stamps. The judges were Mrs. Phil Hamilton, Rev. Dr. A. E. Rennells, Lieut. Lorrman, a former Toronto public school teacher. These able judges thoroughly enjoyed their task and apparently came to unanimous decisions.

Mr. Lorrman, in giving the decisions, congratulated the speakers and teachers. He was amazed at the wealth of material the word "Citizenship" called forth, and the able manner in which the pupils dealt with the subject. Dr. Rennells, in a few well chosen words, awarded the prizes as follows: Grade 5, Mary Ellen McInnis; grade 6, Mary Lou Little; grade 7, Miriam Ryman; grade 8, Gary Proctor.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. L. Bovall in the household science room.

Miss Denne is holding a tea in the same room on Friday, March 27 from 3 to 6 in aid of the British War Victims.

EDITORIAL

RUBBER AND GAS

What other subject is talked on our streets to-day, and how we fume because we were placed in a lower category than we thought was coming to us. At the first real pinch of the shoe we set up a mighty din ranting the powers that be to our full lung capacity.

Hon. C. D. Howe's statement "that we are likely to lose the war unless we can get enough oil and enough rubber" should prove to us that there is no nigger in the woodpile. Eighty percent of Canada's supply of petroleum comes from the United States, carried chiefly by tanker. Submarines are playing havoc with these tankers on the Atlantic Coast. There are not enough railway tank cars to meet the demand. Shortage of steel prevents the building of pipe lines. Turner Valley produces but one sixteenth of the country's needs. So much for gas!

We need not tell you that most of the rubber in its raw state has fallen to the Japs, or that a synthetic product would take a lengthy time to come into production. Give thought to the words of Mr. Howe, "when the tires you now have are worn out, your motoring is over until some considerable time after the war ends."

Did you know that the United Nations require for war purposes seven times as much as is available at present, and whatever synthetic product is obtained will have to go to the same use. Canada, Britain and the United States have pooled their stocks to take care of war needs. Civilian use of rubber has been cut 74 per cent in two months, and still the war supply is so limited that tire retreading cannot be permitted except for essential uses. The Minister intimated that it may yet be necessary to commandeer tires from private owners of vehicles.

Cutting the speed limit to forty miles an hour will save your tires. Cutting non-essential driving to a minimum will materially help the gas situation. Because you have been placed in B or C category does not mean that you have to use all the coupons in the book. It is up to the individual motorist to co-operate fully under these wartime regulations.

FIGHTING BRITAIN'S FIGHT?

One still sometimes hears word-of-mouth suggestions, or sees them in Fascistically inclined publications, that the United States is being induced by Great Britain to make a disproportionate contribution to the war, editorially comments The Christian Science Monitor. Such Axis-aiding talk ran into factual refutation in the radio address of Lord Halifax Wednesday night which told something of what that beleaguered island fortress, Britain, is putting into the war.

For instance the British Ambassador to the United States, disclosed that for months past no less than 80 per cent of Britain's total military production and every soldier for whom shipping space was available have been sent overseas.

One wonders how many of those few Americans who spread disparaging remarks about the British would like to trade places with an average civilian on the British Isles and make his contribution to the war by standards prevailing there.

How would the critic like to be closely rationed as to the clothing he can buy, get around on seven gallons of gasoline a month with the prospect of losing that in July, pay 20 per cent of a $1,600 family income in taxes, be limited to approximately a pound of meat per person per week with little fish or poultry obtainable, get two to five eggs a month, half a pound of sugar a week, and do without green vegetables, fruit, or chocolate?

These are the circumstances under which Britain is giving up every possible ton of its shipping to carry supplies or men to the far battlefronts of Russia, the East and Near East instead of more food for Britain itself.

Americans may well remember that Great Britain was shouldering the burden of the war, largely alone, for two years before the United States became a belligerent. The British Navy for more than a century has been a protection to American interests. When Americans dig as deeply for war sacrifices as Britons are doing, the war will be well-nigh won. And by that time they will be little disposed to quibble about who is doing the more, or for whom, but probably will be content to sum it up with saying, "Britain is fighting freedom's fight—and so is America."

NOTE AND COMMENT

The speed limit has been cut to 40 miles an hour. This will be more of a hardship on some than others, and may be a blessing in disguise.

"Neighborhood News" by our good friend Andy Clarke now comes on Sunday mornings from 10.05 to 10.20, so you can listen to the outstanding events in rural Ontario as gathered through the weekly press while getting ready for church.

The Red Cross in Ontario is calling for 12,000 women volunteers to take their place in the Nursing Auxiliary Reserve of the Red Cross. This unit is being organized to meet any emergency of epidemic or disaster. If you can be of service contact the Red Cross for full particulars.

Bicycles are coming back—but not back on the sidewalks please. It is time that the pedestrian got an even break.

According to General Douglas MacArthur, who is in a good position to know, the average weight of the Japs is about one hundred and twenty-six pounds. So ye of little faith and little weight, take heart, some of the greatest men this world has ever seen have been small in stature but big in history. No doubt these small Jap soldiers are good soldiers—damn them. —Trenton Courier-Advocate.

Among the guests of the Lions Monday evening was a twelve-year-old lad whose club feet had been corrected through this service organization's efforts. To see this youngster enjoying life to the full brought a feeling of joy to each and every member.

These are the saddest days of the year—income tax, defense tax, unemployment insurance and A-1 gas category.

Men's suits in future will have no frills, no cuffs, no buttons on the sleeves and no two pants. In the light of economy the two pant suit should have been retained. A coat and vest long outlasts the trousers. Odd pants will therefore become a vital part of the well-dressed male (if he's not in uniform).

Religious Awakening

Arthur E. Rannels, D.D.

The world needs a new heart. Perhaps one of the most encouraging signs of these bewildering times is that the world humbly acknowledges that need. One of the results of hard times, diminished incomes and the tragedy and suffering of war is a deep religious spirit. When men have eaten and are full they straightway forget God. Food is for the body, so are cotton and wool and gold, but the soul cannot eat cotton or wool or gold. It is not surprising, therefore, that religious awakening should come.

History makes clear that under the law of the Spirit, individuals, cities, nations have been swayed by gusts of spiritual power as fields of corn are swayed by the west winds of summer. Witness the awakening and conversion of three thousand in Jerusalem under Peter's sermon! Witness the tides of emotion that swept over central Europe under Bernard of Clairvaux who, in the thirteenth century wrote:

"Jesus Thou Joy of loving hearts,
Thou Fount of life, Thou light of men,
From the best bliss that earth
imparts

We turn unfilled to Thee again." The forward movement is swift and sudden, but years are spent in transmitting these awakened feelings into laws and institutions. Sometimes the revival is the revival of democracy, of commerce and material development, but always it is God inspired.

All students of social institutions realize these religious awakenings have ushered in new national eras. Green, the historian, raises the question why England never suffered a revolution in 1790 as did the people of France. The answer is that for twenty years John Wesley went up and down England preaching to the colliers.

the peasants and sailors. He called their attention away from the needs of the body and revealed to them the greatness of their own souls. And while the miner wiped his tears with his grimy hand, he resolved to begin the reform of England by reforming his own soul. Regenerated institutions followed the regeneration of England's millions. Not otherwise was it in the great awakening under Jonathan Edwards and Whitfield from 1755 to 1770. That awakening wrote the independence of the American people. In the same way the revival of 1857 followed an era of financial panic, braced the people for the Civil War and made possible the destruction of slavery. In that exalted hour men felt there were only two realities in the universe—God and the human soul. And for God's sake and for man's sake, soldiers fought and patriots lived, and for Christ's sake and human freedom men died.

During the dark days of the World War, Admiral Sir David Beatty declared the conflict could be ended successfully in short order by a great revival of religion.

To call into activity the suspended religious instincts of the people everywhere would clarify and ameliorate the conditions of life for all. Granted that spiritual revolution, the forms and formulae of secular control of affairs would sink to the level of details.

Back of the towers of Parliament stand the spires of the churches. Statesmanship can do little enough if the popular response to its guidance be not guaranteed by the teaching of religious truth in its various interpretations. Never more than now, by common consent, was the world in need of the purifying discipline and broadening strength of a religious awakening.

WHITCHURCH COUNCIL

COUNTY TAXES POINT DOWN IN WHITCHURCH

"We must pass on the saving to the taxpayers if at all possible," said Warden Toole, presiding at the March meeting of Whitchurch council when the clerk reported nearly $1,000 drop in county taxes. The township will pay into county coffers this year $9,415.92.

The council was in session on Saturday, March 14th, when the clerk produced the county tax rates for each municipality. Whitchurch contributes $450 in the levy as the township's share of Red Cross county grant.

Councillor Evans, Deputy Reeve Leary, also the Reeve and Clerk were delegated to meet the Aurora Fire Brigade with the view of settling the fire area charges. The Brigade are asking an increase for serving a stated area in the township.

Constable Windsor's account for $50 was turned back for details. It was agreed that while the amount was all right, the bill lacked information concerning what the various items were about.

On motion of Councillor Evans and Logan, 10,000 feet of snow fence was ordered with necessary posts in readiness for another winter, and in accordance with the idea of stocking up in this item.

Ratepayers in S.S. No. 1 (King & Whitchurch) will be assessed $800 extra this year, alleged under levies in rates not collected in recent years. The extra taxes plus the current rate, will still be under that collected in peak years for school purposes in S.S. No. 1.

The council is required this year to adopt a budget on their expenses for all purposes under a recent ruling, and to keep within that budget. It will be submitted by the treasurer at a special meeting on April 2, Township tax rate will be struck in April, the earliest on record.

The payroll for snow and other work totalled $1,100, with repair parts for overhauling the power grader costing $328 additional. The operator, Floyd Preston, did the work, thus saving costly mechanical help and valuable time in sending the grader to the factory. The clerk, on motion of Councillors

Some Of Ontario's Wonderful Gardens

By Golden Glow

Anyone who intended to go to the illustrated lecture given by John F. Clark, the well known lecturer on Horticulture, last Friday evening and was unable to go for one reason, well, all I can say is "you have my deepest sympathy." For I know just how I'd have felt if I had been unable to go! And for those who could have gone, if they had not been going somewhere else, well, I am sorry for them, too, for I know positively the "somewhere else" just couldn't have compared with the wonderful evening that Mr. and Mrs. Clark gave us last Friday night. Mr. Clark had his wife's help; she takes charge of the lantern, and I think they must have a little co-operative society all their own, for they work so well together — with never a hitch! And let me add how greatly that must be appreciated by an amateur attempting to run the lantern for Mr. Clark, say one of our own members for instance, for they would miss so much of the lecture in their anxiety to not make a mistake, and also they would not see the pictures with the same enthusiasm for, if they had never done it before, they could not take their mind off the lantern long enough to really see the beautiful pictures their efforts were throwing on the screen. And were those pictures ever lovely! Well, just ask anybody who saw them! To my mind it was one of the best of all the splendid evenings Mr. Clark has given us. Such a trip! He took us all over Ontario, from away up in the North country, near Kapuskasing, where the temperature drops the lowest, to Halleybury and Timiskaming, to Bruce Peninsula, up between Lake Huron and Georgian Bay, down to Tillsonburg and Windsor, and St. Thomas and Toronto, Fenelon Falls and Cobocok, to Gananoque on the St. Lawrence, and Pembroke, near Petawawa Camp, and that most beautiful of all highways, the Driveway at Ottawa, with scores of other places in between. So many of those places we have been on our summer vacation trips, and seeing them again in all their glowing colors, on the screen, just made me long for the chance to see them all over again. But "joy-riding," or should I say driving for pleasure, is to be curtailed for the duration—so I'll just have to "travel by memory" till peace among nations is once more restored.

Mr. Clark seems to know just what we like to hear about, and he never wanders from his subject or fails to keep the undivided attention of his hearers. His words are as vivid as the lovely pictures that Mrs. Clark throws on the screen. It does seem too bad that there were so many other things in town Friday evening, for the hall should have been crowded, and I know, as I said at the start of this article, that a great many must have been sadly disappointed—many that always were there other years, and enjoyed it so much.

Mr. Clark showed us reclaimed places, and it really looked like magic, in fact, almost unbelievable, to see it "before" and "after," if you did not know from experience what can be done with a spade and a rake—and a packet of seeds, and a watering can! Kitchener, for instance, where the work of one man alone (I think it was Kitchener, but that's not so important as the fact of what was accomplished)—the engineer at the water-works, by his own unaided efforts, literally "made the wilderness blossom as a rose," and was responsible for the planting of thousands of trees and of beautifying the whole district where he worked, then extending his work to other unsightly places.

But the wonderful rockeries he showed us made to beautify some waste place! However, first of all we started, as seemed fitting, at the spot where our King and Queen started their late tour of Ontario Province — on the magnificent Driveway in Ottawa. I expect many besides myself know, and love, that delightful highway and enjoyed seeing it again, all in lovely colors. Its boulevards, and its flower-beds and borders, its wonderful shrubs and stately trees — it was all there in pictures, with glimpses of the river — and the picture of Gananoque, on Highway No. 2, with the St. Lawrence River showing under the bridge in the background. We saw marvellous places, and heard the story of their origin, and could scarcely believe our ears. We saw Toronto's Exhibition Park — and I know everybody enjoyed that part of the lecture for we all claim Toronto and Exhibition Park as our own, and are proud of it—and believe me there were no pictures any finer than those of our own city of Toronto. No, not even the famous Harry Oake's garden at Niagara Falls. I have written so many times about the glories of that garden that you all must know by now how I love it, so you will know that I appreciated that part of the lecture — especially when he showed the view of the Falls from a point in the Harry Oake's garden, and then one at night of the Illumination, because several years ago we took a trip to Niagara Falls and stayed for a few days, and I never tired of that particular time every evening when the colored lights were turned on. Mr. Clark even took us to Cobocok and Fenelon Falls, to Stayner and Orillia and Collingwood. I sort of held my breath about that time, hoping he would take a trip through Mr. Butchart's lovely garden at Owen Sound — "The Martins" — but we didn't, worse luck! He showed us Mrs. Dunlop's tuberous begonias — every color of the rainbow and then some; showed us how even a tiny plot could be made a beauty spot, and showed us that if we had nothing more than a window-sill we could cultivate a window-box garden! He showed us an old farmhouse "before and after" — you'd never have recognized it for the same place. He showed us how the Indians in our Indian school at Brantford had made their school grounds one of the neatest places possible.

I haven't quite run out of adjectives, but I'll spare you any more, for I think I really have convinced you that it was one of the most enjoyable illustrated lectures of the many delightful ones Mr. Clark has even given us. One thing for which I was deeply grateful was when he showed a lovely picture of our Ontario floral emblem—the dainty trillium, and told us what I tell you every spring about not picking the beautiful frail flowers, since it kills the roots. He also warned us that seeds are growing very scarce, and so made more expensive, and are likely to go higher still, and he suggests we save our own seed whenever possible and so make sure of having some for next year. He also urged us to take the utmost care of our garden tools, keeping them well-oiled and under shelter, for they will be next to impossible to replace. I haven't told you half of the helpful things he told us but I think I'll end up here with thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Clark and the Horticultural Society for such a delightful and profitable evening.

THE NEWMARKET WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The March meeting of the Newmarket Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Lyons, 63 Botsford street, on Thursday, March 19. The president, Mrs. T. Watson, presided. The meeting was opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The roll call was answered by "A Scripture Verse." The minutes of the last meeting and treasurer's report were read by Miss C. Roadhouse. The communications followed.

An explanation was made as to why the cooking school was not held. The difficulty was to find a suitable free place to hold it. The agricultural rooms were occupied. The different committees gave their time for the guest speaker.

Mrs. Dunn gave the report of the war work activities. A baby's layette was donated to the Red Shield. A hooked rug donated by one of the members was displayed tickets to be sold on this in the near future.

Members and friends were urged to attend the Johnson show the committee is sponsoring in the Town Hall on March 25.

Mrs. Ecobichon gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Arthur Boyd gave the report of the district executive meeting. The district annual meeting is to be held in the Bugle Band Hall on May 22, each person to take their own lunch.

A nominating committee for the next meeting was chosen, namely Mrs. Arthur Brammar, Mrs. Arthur Boyd and Mrs. Fred Penrose. A program committee was also elected. Mrs. Frank Hope, Mrs. J. E. Neilly, Mrs. Ross Howlett and Mrs. McKimming.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Tanner, president of Women's section of the League of Nations, was a very interesting and gifted speaker. Her topic was "Our Responsibilities In Time of War." This topic was under three points: 1st "Look after home and family; 2nd Help win the war, and 3rd, Help to build a kind of peace for the kind of secure world we want. Mrs. Tanner's talk was very inspiring and very much enjoyed by all.

A vote of thanks was offered by Mrs. Matland and Mrs. Sd. Brammar. Singing of the National Anthem brought the meeting to a close. A social half-hour followed.

ST. PAUL'S W.A.

The members of St. Paul's W.A. enjoyed their trip to Bradford last Thursday afternoon when they attended the monthly devotional meeting of Trinity Church Women's Auxiliary. The hall was well filled with members from neighboring branches who were given a warm welcome by the Bradford branch, assisted by the members from St. Paul's W.A., 77-100th Corners, who joined their sister church in being hostesses to the visitors.

Miss M. Whitworth, a returned missionary, gave the address, and having very recently been invalided home from China, she was able to give us a very clear idea of present-day life in that far country. To hear her tell in her inimitable way of the Burma Road, and the construction of the new road from India, was a revelation.

She told of Chung King, the new capital, and how the rocky formation lends itself to shelters from banking, which is the reason why it has been able to hold out so long and so successfully. She told of the marvellous work of Chiang Kai-Shek, and especially of Madam Chiang Kai-Shek and her sisters.

She told of the wee sister who has done so much for the many war orphans, being instrumental in many cases of again bringing parents and children together.

After the meeting afternoon tea was served, and the members were privileged to meet and chat with Miss Whitworth, who has such a charming personality all her own.

WATERLOO BAND FESTIVAL WITHDRAWN

The Waterloo Band Festival, inaugurated in 1932, has been cancelled for this year due to two factors, the transportation problem and lack of finances.

Newmarket's two bands have on several occasions competed at the big event, which attracted thousands of spectators, and have captured several first prizes.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

Last Sunday, Passion Sunday, the Rector based his address on "The Way of the Cross" at the morning service, and at the close "The Story of the Cross" was sung.

In the evening the Rector continued his sermons on the Parable of the Prodigal Son, the elder brother being the subject.

Next Sunday evening he will conclude his series of addresses on the subject. In accordance with the mandate of His Majesty the King, who has requested that next Sunday, March 29, Palm Sunday, be a day of prayer and intercession special prayers will be said at early service, and the Litany at morning service.

DAIRY FARMERS' SPIRIT THAT OF ENGLAND EVER

They put an English dairy farmer on the air recently in a broadcast describing how London handles the distribution of milk, "but," says John O'Ren, in the Baltimore Sun, "he made an incidental remark that I like better than anything he said about the milk supply." The columnist explains:

"His farm is in Kent, down in what came to be known as 'Hell Corner' during the blitz. His barns were burned, the roof was blown off his cowshed, and at least eight of his heifers were killed in successive raids. I can think of many ways of describing such a time, but I don't think I should ever have thought of his way. He said: 'Those were the days when we went to bed hopeful and got up really thankful.'

"Hopeful and thankful in Hell Corner! Well, maybe that explains better than military logic why there'll always be an England."

HISTORY OF YORK RANGERS REVIEWED

The Rangers are now recruiting again for Active Service. They went into camp at Thorold, Ontario, September 15, 1866, with six Companies—strength 76 years ago: 23 Officers, 152 Other Ranks. The Regiment went from Toronto to Port Dalhousie by steamer and marched to Thorold Camp. There was continuous wet weather throughout the weeks of training, and the Regiment left camp on September 22, in a down pour of rain.

It is interesting to recall that the York Rangers were inspected at conclusion of Camp held at Thorold by Col. Wolsley, afterwards Field Marshal Lord Wolsley. The York Rangers in the last Great War sent through the ranks some 6,000 York County men.

SPRING WAKES UP THE FLOWERS

By Golden Glow

I do not think I am giving away any secrets when I tell you about a little playlet Mrs. Belugin is including in her concert in aid of the Red Cross, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's Church next month, for I can hardly wait to see it myself. I think I shall suggest I be allowed to see a rehearsal so I can let you people know a bit about it beforehand, so you won't miss any of the beauty of it. I know because Mrs. Belugin told me about this particular part of the concert, and I know it will be perfectly lovely.

All the performers are to be dressed to represent flowers, the stage will be dark, and at dawn, morning wakes them up. We shall see them wake up and dance to the music of spring, and later go to sleep again for the night.

The performers tell me they love it, and I know we are going to have a treat!

There will also be some Hungarian dances. Mrs. Belugin gave a delightful concert last year in aid of the Red Cross, and this promises to be even better. I hope the town hall is crowded both nights.

TAXES IN BRITAIN TO PAY FOR THE WAR

In one week during the recent winter the income tax in Great Britain yielded £53,959,000. This compares with £59,423,821 in the whole of 1915, first full year of the Great War. But the tax then was only 1s. 8d. in the pound, whereas the minimum rate is now just about three times Canada's rate, the exemption has been lowered and the rates for the higher income brackets sharply increased.

don't have the sight in your town of young girls going into beverage rooms, thank goodness. We must build a better community pattern. "We must take our share of civic responsibility and see that every citizen does something about it. Our enemies have shown us a lesson in this respect. Every citizen is compelled to shoulder his responsibility, and to do what and what not he will and can do.

"And lastly, we must master cowardice. Why do we fear an invasion? It is fear of personal loss, of hardships and suffering. The one big thing to fear is that without the bombings and the sufferings that the peoples in the United Kingdom, in France, Greece and in Poland have endured, that we will not learn the lesson that this war is meant to teach us. If we do not learn our lesson and set up a better standard of human living, together the suffering and sacrifice will be all in vain."

Warden Earl Toole of York County, in moving a vote of thanks to the Lions on behalf of the farmers present, said: "We are not unfamiliar with the good work you have been carrying on, and this get-together will cause us to take an even greater interest." Reeve Stanley Osborne of East Gwillimbury was the seconder.

Vincent Casey, 12-year-old orator of Snowball delighted the gathering with a ten-minute discourse on General Charles DeGaulle, head of Free France. Vincent was a finalist in the recent York County oratorical contest.

Allan Shaw of Sharon, and Vincent were the winners of lucky prizes.

HOLSTEIN BREEDERS HOLD 7TH ANNUAL BANQUET

He proved himself to be an outstanding student of human nature.

An interesting feature was the presentation of production certificates by C. D. Graham, chief of the extension service of the Canadian Holstein Association to York breeders with cows having outstanding production. These included:

Roy H. Barker, one superior production; H. F. Boake, one superior production; Eaton Hall Farm, one superior production, one long time; Hon. Geo. S. Henry, three superior production; Geo. C. Jackson, two superior production; Rankin Kellam, one superior production, two long time; R. S. Mackinnon, one superior production; Ontario Reformatory, two superior production; Lloyd Turner, two superior production; York County House of Refuge, superior production.

Entertainment was provided by two Toronto artists and the evening concluded with a draw for three prizes on the membership tickets. Geo. C. Jackson of Downsview, first vice-president of the Canadian Holstein Association donated and presented the prizes as drawn by H. J. Colson, editor of the Holstein Journal. The winners were John Kellam, Nashville, Porter Bros., Thornhill, and Earl Edwards, Schomberg.

fine and just waiting for the day to set foot on good old Main Street again.

"Will close with best wishes and many thanks again to one and all responsible for the smokes. Keep up the good work."

Rfn. E. W. Cole: "I received your carton of cigarettes this past week and was very much surprised and pleased. There has been quite a bit of mail gone down this past month, so I guess I'm doubly lucky."

"Things are very quiet here just now but I guess Hitler has his hands full with Uncle Joe Stalin for a while. We are all anxious to get a crack at him too, as this routine of training is awfully monotonous. Our chance will be coming one of these days though."

"I just got back from seven days' privilege leave last week and as some of you know what leave is like, I'm flat broke till payday again. So you see, friends, the cigs sure came at just the right time."

"Wishing your club and members all success in your work, which is really appreciated."

Feb. 10, 1942.

The Newmarket Lions Club, H. E. Gilroy, Secretary, Newmarket, Ontario.

Dear Sirs,—
Your parcel of cigarettes have arrived safely. I want to take this opportunity of thanking you most sincerely for your thoughtfulness. It helps a lot to know that you are not forgotten.

Thanking you again, I remain,
Yours sincerely,
J. D. Malcolm.

The Newmarket Lions Club, H. E. Gilroy, Secretary.

Dear Sirs,—
Today I have returned off my seven days' leave, and to my surprise found that the Lions had not forgotten their sons of Newmarket. Thanks a million for the cigs., as they came in very handy, and my supply was very low after my leave.

We are going on Div. Movements tomorrow.

Thanks again. Hoping to see you all soon so that I may thank you personally.

Gratefully yours,
"Brownie."

Somewhere in England,

Feb. 7, 1942.

The Newmarket Lions Club, H. E. Gilroy, Secretary.

Dear Sirs,—
I wish to gratefully acknowledge the cigarettes which I received today. You who have served in the armed forces can readily understand why we need cigarettes so much, but for those of you who haven't, a parcel of cigarettes is tantamount to the finding of an oasis by a lost desert traveller.

I was on a six-hour bombing trip last night, and even though I wasn't frightened—much—the cigarettes sure came in handy this morning.

Well thanks again for the cigarettes, which will help me to do a worthwhile task better.

Sincerely,
George Germain.
